FUTURE PORTIAS RECEIVE LAW SCHOOL DEGREES

Twenty-four of Forty-Six Graduates of Washington College Are Women.

Forty-six students, twenty-four of whom were women, were awarded diplomas last night at the sixteenth annual commencement of the Washington College of Law, in Memorial Continental Hall.

Concluding one of the most successful years in its history, the graduating exercises served to emphasize the increasing interest that woman is taking in law as a profession. All of the ten candidates for master of law degrees were women.

A novel feature of the ceremonies was the graduation of a mother and son, Mrs. Sarah T. Andrew and Herbert B. Andrew. They expect to apply for admission to the bar in their native state, Missouri.

Edwin A. Moores was the principal prize winner, though woman member of the class figured prominently in the distribution of awards. Moores' honors consisted of having made the highest record during the third year, the highest record during the junior year and the highest general rating in the entire course.

Get Honorable Mention. Albert Temple, Adele M. Stewart and Eunice W. Wright were given honorable mention in the competitions in which Moores was declared the victor.

Prizes for the best records in moot court practice and trade marks in patent law course were awarded, respectively, to William Edgar Chapman and Walter G. Jones.

Honor of having established the highest average during the junior year was conferred upon Paul H. Pierce, honorable mention going to J. Edward Tenly, while Laura M. Berrien was announced as the honor student of the freshman class.

Miss Emma M. Gillett, dean of the school, presided over the exercises. Addresses were made by Representative James M. Graham of Illinois and Former Chief Justice Stanton J. Peelle of the Court of Claims, president of the board of trustees. Music was furnished by the Marine Band.

PRINCIPALS IN FAIRY PLAY AT GROVER CLEVELAND SCHOOL

PAUL BEALL AND FLORA KAIL.

CHILDREN ON THE STAGE IN "THE SILVER THREAD"

Grover Cleveland School Pupils Entertain Audience and Provide Recreation Fund.

Laying aside their books and taking the form of goblins, kings, princesses and other persons encountered more often between the covers of fairy books than on the streets of Washington, boys and girls of the Grover Cleveland School last evening presented "The Silver Thread" before an audience of their parents and friends. The money raised by the performance is to be used to carry on the industrial and recreation center work there during the vacation months.

"The Silver Thread" is a little tale from the Welsh folk, in five acts. It is to be repeated this evening. Only adults were admitted last evening, but tonight children are also to be allowed to attend.

Provide Their Own Paraphernalia. All scenery, costumes and other paraphernalia for the play were made by the children of the school and the recreation center. The work was done under the direction of Miss Frances Fairley, the principal; Miss Cecil Norton, one of the teachers, and Mrs. Howard Beall, mother of one of the pupils. These three also have charge of the recreation work at the school.

List of Participants. Paul Beall took the part of the minor boy, while the resplendent princess was Flora Kail. Others taking part in the performance were Marian Hoffar, Helen Moran, Flora Kail, Edward Tyser, Lella Griffith, Margaret Riess, Dennis Burns, Taylor Freeman, Daniel Sugru, Paul Porton, Herbert Lein, Vernon Sizer, Bernard Fenwick, Lawrence Wiedman, Welby Arnold, Harry Fox, John Fredericks, Hugh Maddoo, Joseph Klinge, Henry Brown, Carl Donahue and Isaac Silverman.

Music was furnished by Miss Ida Ullman, violinist, and Mrs. Sue Jennings, pianist. Ethel Maddox, Helen Morris, Myra Stuart and Frieda Dittes danced.

U. S. Sailors' Graves at Cherbourg. PARIS, May 28.—The graves of several American sailors buried at Cherbourg after the engagement June 19, 1864, in which the Confederate steamer Alabama was sunk by the U. S. S. Kearsarge, have been located. These tombs, as well as those of several American veterans buried at Versailles and Saint Germain, will be decorated with flowers and flags by a committee of Americans.

RYE NAMED FOR GOVERNOR. Chosen by Tennessee Democratic Convention on Ninth Ballot.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 29.—The democratic state convention adjourned late yesterday after nominating Thomas C. Rye of Paris for governor and George N. Welch of Nashville for railroad commissioner. Welch was nominated over the incumbent, Frank Averb, by a large majority.

The nomination of Rye was the result of three days of close fighting that began Tuesday in the state judicial convention. With the contest over Davidson county's thirty-five votes and the fight for temporary organization decided against him, Rye fought his way up steadily on the first ballot. Nine ballots were taken.

INSPECT DECORATION DAY
